Wireless. Innovation. Freedom.

Dear Friend,

Thank you for your support of Mobile Future. Mobile Future is dedicated to educating the public and key decision makers on innovations in the wireless industry that have transformed the way Americans work and play and to advocate continued investment in wireless technologies. Mobile Future expects to progress on behalf of our members and we look forward to a successful partnership with you.

This letter is to affirm that your organization agrees be a partner in this project and a member of Mobile Future. Your signature below will signify your permission to disclose your participation and to list your organization in our coalition materials, including but not limited to the Mobile Future website, informational resources, promotional materials, and issue advocacy communications. Your signature also grants us a limited license to post your organization's logo on the Mobile Future website's "Membership" section next to the printed name of your organization. Mobile Future will not use your organization's logo in any other public communication without express written permission from the organization.

Thank you very much for your participation and we look forward to a successful effort on behalf of our coalition members.

Sincerely,

Teri Rucker
Executive Director
